1. Minutes of the May 9, 2023 meeting

Old Business

Old Business

Discussed our pleasure with the window haiku window clings and expressed appreciation to Staff who supported the effort. We may continue the haiku call in future years by shifting the season of the call. E.g., in 2024 we can have a fall Harvest Haiku call. In 2025 we can do a winter (Haiku on Ice) or spring haiku .

Discussed need for a PACO specific intern once the school year start to help with calls for art and other projects.

New Business

Discussion of PACO involvement in Ox Chalks the Walks with Rosalyn Benson.

- The event will be on August 12th from 11 am to 3 pm. It's a chalk competition for children 6 – 11 and youth 12 – 18. Non-competitive chalking for the community.
- The following actions would be helpful and supportive for the event: assistance with promotion among community members, help with cleanup, judges for different categories, prizes for experiential art. Artwork displayed in businesses. Notation of ice cream coupons from McDonalds.
- Amber will ask Norm Krumpe if he will be available to take photos on Aug 12th, look into coupons and experiential art coupons

1. PACO involvement in Ox Chalks the Walks

2. Partner with PACO stipend program

Partner with PACO stipend program

- Discussed inviting community members to partner with PACO for make and take art during Streets and Eats event and/or Otoberfest. Becky mentioned the importance of framing the program correctly. Possible source of support could be Stephanie Danker and Art Education students, Lane Library, Miami Maker's Space, etc

3. Municipal Building Call for Art

Municipal Building Call for Art

- Discussed proposed timeline for new call: Announce in September, submissions due in October, possible special meeting to jury submissions, display in December
- Jessica will have a draft for the call for art ready make edits and adjust the dates. (We may keep the call exactly the same for the 2nd year)
- We should invite Robert Mullinex to join us for judging a representative from OCAC
- Invite selected artists to a reception to meet PACO members then have a reception open to entire community

4. PACO Grant program for 2024

PACO Grant program for 2024

- Hold $3, 5000 of PACO's $5,000 annual budget for a larger art project. In phase 1 of the grant project, the art could be installed on city-owned property. In phase of the grant project (2025) We could partner with other entities to support and fund public art. (E.g. Oxford Area Trails partnership)
- Discussed cities with thriving public art culture, e.g. Ashville, NC.
