Old Business

2 vacancies remain for PACO membership

Review of Haiku Timeline

- Submit by August 30th
- Review and selection during September PACO regular meeting

- Posted signs by early October in business windows.
- Jessica will enlist her intern, Emily Shoker to help with the project
- We may pick a prominent location where the winning haiku will go

New Business

1. Review mural proposals and select semi-finalists.

1. Review of 16 proposal submissions for the call for mural

- The mural review committee consisted of all 5 PACO members in attendance and Kim Daggy (Enjoy Oxford)
- The committee expressed gratitude for the 16 proposals that were submitted and commented favorably on the high quality of all the submitted proposals and the strong letters of support for each applicant.
- Discussed each committee member's top selections and reviewed proposals that had multiple votes across the committee.
- Narrowed submissions down to 3 semi-finalists: Hannah Webb, Jennifer Acus-Smith (Brightwall Collective), & Girls Who Paint Murals
- Heard feedback from members of the public who were in attendance. Public expressed their excitement for the quality of the submissions reviewed during the meeting and the semi-finalists that were chosen. One member of the public expressed a desire for the artist to have a local connection.
- Discussed the next steps, which is for the 3 semi-finalists to present their fully-realized design at the next PACO meeting. We will have the next meeting in a different location so artists can present their mural concepts on a big screen.
- Ashley Keeton will send communication to the semi-finalists and all who submitted proposals on June 11th.
